We're holding off on the cutting of the large maple tree in Glebeview until the rain stops and the ground dries out some.

Danny, Gary and Duane met with the Park Ranger about the cutting of brush behind the fence at Lowell Lake Cemetery. He gave the go ahead to clear brush as needed.

Someone added a footstone to a plot for Gerald & Mary Wilson in Glebeview Cemetery. On the footstone is a notation for Joanne M. Wilson Cote. Gary made a motion to take the stone up and store it until we are contacted, Maureen seconded it. The motion passed.
