

Mighty Londonderry
Community Resilience Organization
Minutes - February 14, 2017

Attendees: Bruce Frauman, Kevin Beattie, Dick Dale, Jennifer Probst

Meeting called to order by Bruce Frauman at 11:012 am.

2. Minutes of meeting of January 31, 2017 were approved.
3. Jennifer said she would be attending a class on exercise design on March 14.
4. Dick went over the timetable for the Planning Commission roll out of the new town plan. He said this was a major re-write, the first in many years. The new plan will be distributed Feb. 20. A Planning Commission hearing will be held March 16. It is expected that the Select Board will hold a hearing on April 17.
5. (Item 3 - VT Alert) Bruce said the Board unanimously approved our request to have Vermont Alert give them a presentation with the goal of Londonderry signing up on VT Alert's managed side. Paul Gordon asked for a 10 minute presentation. Kevin will send an email to Bruce with the name of the VT Alert contact. We will ask him if he can present to the Board on April 3. Kevin noted that LEOP gets updated in April and VT Alert might be part of the update
6. (Item 4 - Post meeting actions) We all agreed to start planning for a mock drill and/or table top exercise in March or April and plan to host the event in May.

As to soft agency coordination, Kevin said a link to the town is key. Dick said Tom Dougherty, Neighborhood Connections has left as executive director. They may re-access their mission in the transition. Bruce corrected him saying that he is leaving April 1. Jennifer reminded us of Rich Cogliano's recommendation to connect NC with VT 211. Dick said Bob Wells is already connected to all the players, but is not keen on town government. No meeting is planned just yet.
7. (Item 5 - FB as Red Cross shelter) Jennifer will invite David Muse to the Mighty Londonderry meeting on April 4 at 11 am.
6. The next meeting is set for Tuesday, March 14 at 11:00 am at the Twitchell Building. We will set the stage for the meetings and exercises to be planned in April.
7. Meeting adjourned at 11:42 am.
